From: Teaching Tech Team
Device: iPhone

Entering and Exiting
Applications and Email Overview
Instructional Flash Cards

Entering Applications Step 1

- Tap the screen.
- If your device has a password, enter the code.
- Now you are at the home screen.

Table of Contents

Home Screen Photo

Applications

- Click on the app that you would like to open.
Example: Click on the Clock Application

- After you have finished using the application that you selected, you may want to leave the application and return to the home screen.

- Swipe up on the screen.

- Now the application that you selected will open on the screen.

Example: Clock application.
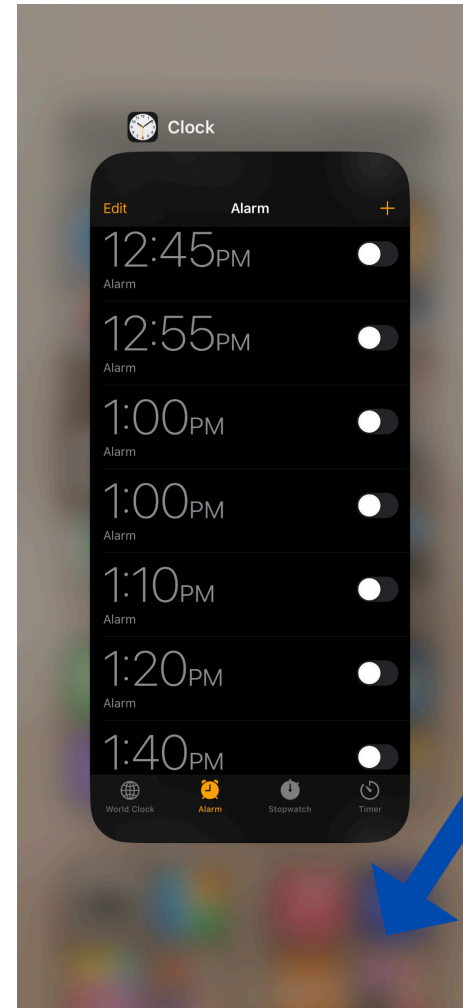

When you swipe up, the application page will hover in the center of the screen as such.

Now click the space underneath the app.

You should now be back to your home screen.

Revisiting Tabs Step 1 9

Swipe up on the home screen.

Closing Tabs Step 1 11

Swipe up on the home screen.

When you swipe up, the application page will hover in the center of the screen as such.

Now click on the floating application page, and the application will open up on the screen.
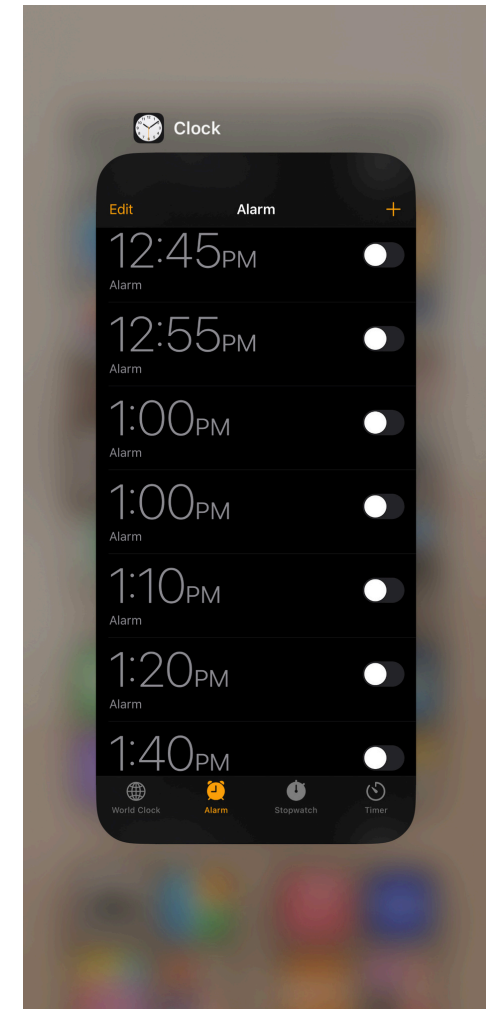

When you swipe up, the application page will hover in the center of the screen as such.

Now swipe up on the floating application page, and the application page will disappear.

Click on the Mail application on your home screen.

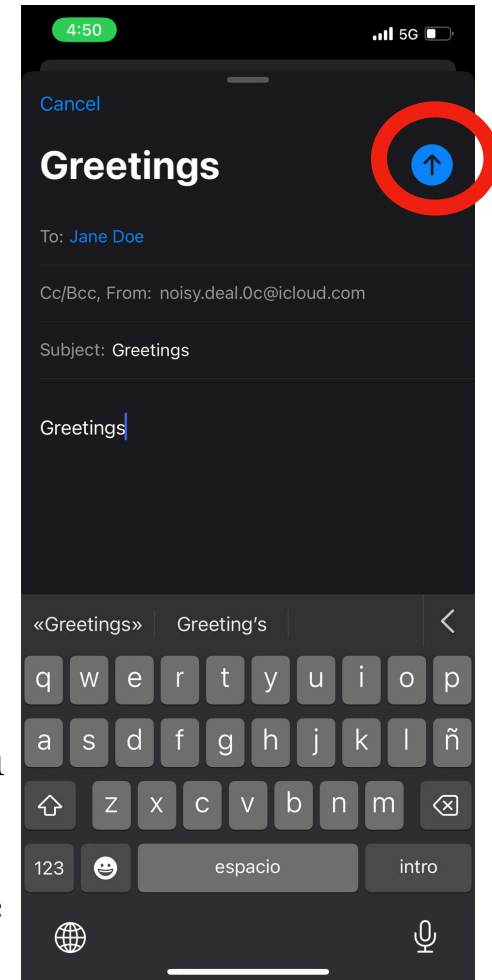

Click

Now the new email will pop up on the screen.

Type in the desired recipient, subject, and message.

Now click the blue arrow icon in the top right corner to send the email.

Click on the compose symbol in the bottom corner of the screen.

Click on the email that you would like to reply to.

Click on the reply symbol at the bottom of the screen.
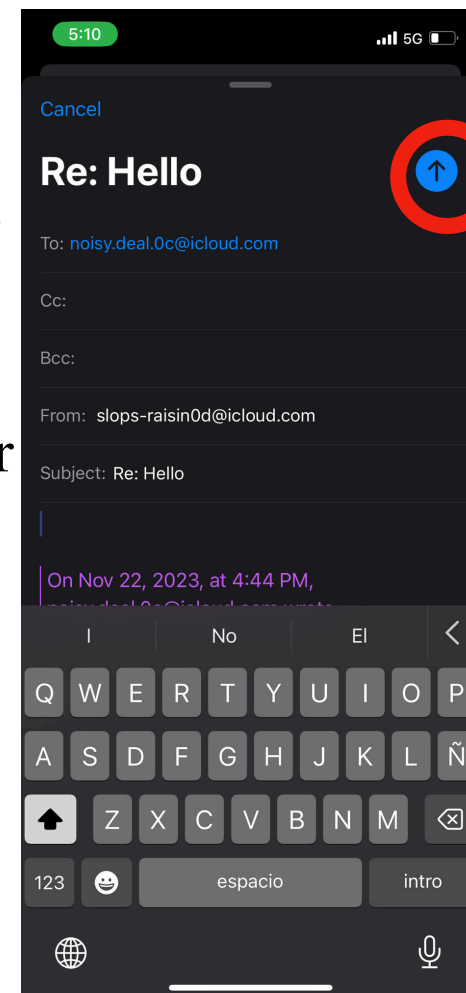

Now, you will see the new email template.

Add the message of your choice.

Click the blue send symbol in the top right corner to send the reply.

Click on "Reply" to reply directly to the person who sent you the email.